MRS. FRANK MOODY GIVES DEMONSTRATION AT ROCHESTER WOMAN'S CLUB

Members and friends of the Rochester Woman's Club were fascinated by the deft fingers of Mrs. Frank J. Moody who demonstrated the creation of original and very attractive paper novelties for tables and Christmas gift wrapping. Mrs. Moody also gave instructions in decorating candles and making calendars. All of the finished samples were left for the club members by Mrs. Moody. Some of these were sent to two local nursing homes and a box of bows were used to decorate Christmas boxes ready to send to the Brockton VA Hospital.

At the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Henry B. Smith, it was voted to buy six strings of Christmas lights and to send a donation to the Greater New Bedford Chapter for Retarded Children. It was also voted to fill and send a Christmas basket to a family. Mrs. Abraham Jackson is chairman for this and donations of canned foods, etc., may be left at Mrs. Timothy O'Brien's home on Marion Road next to the clubhouse.

A letter was read from the chairman of the Rochester branch of the American Red Cross, Mrs. Stephen Saunders, with regard to a home nursing course in caring for the sick and injured. It was voted to bring this up again at the January 14th meeting.

Final plans for the Children's Christmas Party were made and Miss Katherine Hartley and Mrs. David Fearing are in charge. Committee members are Mesdames Roger Wood, Abraham Jackson and Albert Hellyer. Mrs. David Fearing is accepting registrations now. To help defray expenses of the Christmas party, another Wayne Bailey Hi-Fi record hop will be held at the club hall on Saturday night, December 21st, at 8:00 P.M.

A lighted Christmas tree provided a holiday touch at the meeting and a very attractive centerpiece made by the Young People's Fellowship of the First Congregational Church of Rochester graced the refreshment table. Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Henry Hartley, William Croker and Arthur Lionberger who served delicious squares and cookies and coffee.

At the next meeting on Tuesday, January 14th, Mrs. Blanche Robinson of Wareham will be present and will tell about Tobey Hospital activities. Hostesses will be Mesdames Charles Matthews and Henry B. Smith.

RETURNED TO FLORIDA

George Kennitzer, formerly of Rochester, who has been spending the past summer with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reed, of North Avenue, Rochester, has returned to St. Petersburg, Florida, where he spends the winters with his son, George. He arrived there on Wednesday by bus.

OBSERVED BIRTHDAYS

Raymond C. Daggett of Rochester observed his 10th birthday on December 6th, and his uncle, Dennis Arruda, was 12 on December 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Parsons of Pearl Street, Mattapoisett are the parents of a son, Andrew Scott, born November 29th, at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford.

TO PERFORM IN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

David Stonehill of Mattapoisett will perform with the DePauw University symphony orchestra in Greencastle, Indiana Wednesday evening, December 11th.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Stonehill of Beacon Street, Mattapoisett, and is a member of the violin section.

Prof. Herman Berg is conductor of America's second oldest college orchestra.

Scheduled in connection with the first American Arts Festival at DePauw, Wednesday's concert will include Leo Sowerby's overture, "Comes Autumn Time", and "Dance Rhythms" by Wallingford Riegger.

One of the highlights will be a performance of "The Nativity", written by a DePauw alumnus, Paul Whear, who currently is teaching and conducting at Mount Union College.

A setting of the Christmas story as told in the Gospel of St. Luke, "The Nativity" will be narrated by Robert E. Williams, emeritus professor of speech.

Concluding number on the program is Vittorio Giannini's Second Symphony, a recent work by one of America's most prolific composers.

EXPANDED CHRISTMAS DISPLAYS IN '57

The interest in Christmas lighting display expressed last year and the satisfaction gained by the displayers, prompts the Mattapoissett Improvement Association to again offer awards this year. The same class divisions - homes, business, industrial and civic will be awarded plaques in appreciation of their interests in making the town a brighter place. The judging will be by a committee and will be for originality, beauty, spiritual creativeness and effort expressed. Simplicity could easily be the keynote of your individual expression that could make you a winner.

Show your pride in the town and your individual feeling of Christmas by lighting a candle in your window, making a setting on your lawn, decorating the house or store, or whatever suits you, whether you try for a prize or not.

The committee will try to cover every inch of the town to single you out and judge your display. They would, however, appreciate it if you would drop a card and let them know you would like to be judged. Mail it to Walter Daniels, Marion Road, Mattapoissett, chairman, and give him your name and address. He will do the rest. Make everybody's Christmas brighter by getting behind this decorating idea.

The pupils of the Center School, Mattapoissett will participate in the display. They will add to the beauty of the town by the decoration of their classroom windows. They will be judged December 19th and 20th.

LITERATURE-DRAMA GROUP CHRISTMAS MEETING

Members of the Literature-Drama group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club were entertained at a delightful afternoon Christmas meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Linwood C. Lewis of Acushnet Road, Mattapoisett. Mrs. Harold Banks, chairman, opened the meeting with the reading of the Christmas story from St. Luke, followed by the members each reading their Christmas stories or poems which they brought. Mrs. Robert Flanders read conundrums she had created from the regular members' names for those present to guess. A game was played, directed by Mrs. Lewis, with Mrs. Charles B. Dunn the winner. Christmas carols were sung with Mrs. Anthony J. Sylvia as pianist. Holiday cupcakes and coffee were served by Mrs. Lewis who was assisted by Mrs. Flanders and Mrs. Ross Hopkins. Each member received a gift on leaving.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard H. Smith of Acushnet Road on the second Tuesday of January, the 14th. Books to be reviewed and discussed will be "Roll Round the Flag Boys" by Max Shulman and "Jane" by Phyllis Bottome.

GOAL SURPASSED ON CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING FUND CAMPAIGN

The figure of $1,688,624 was reached at the fourth and final general report meeting of the Catholic Memorial High School building fund campaign Wednesday evening in St. Joseph's hall, thus surpassing considerably the minimum goal of $1,500,000. Most Rev. James L. Connolly, D.D., bishop of Fall River and honorary chairman of the campaign, again thanked the volunteer workers for the splendid example of sacrifice which they have demonstrated to all their fellow parishioners and to the entire diocese as participants in this successful venture.

Funds raised in the campaign will be used to help defray the costs of constructing and equipping the new 24-classroom school, estimated in excess of $2,000,000. The school, which will be ready for occupancy in September, 1959, will be erected at State Route 6 and Slocum Road, North Dartmouth.

In addition, Dr. Arthur F. Buckley, general chairman of the drive, pointed out that the total amount raised would soar even higher during the next few weeks as the men complete the substantial number of calls yet to be made and the returns of the business and friends committees come in.

Very Rev. Hugh A. Gallagher, campaign moderator, took the occasion to compliment all the workers, and singled out Dr. Arthur F. Buckley, general chairman, and Joseph P. Duchaine, memorial gifts chairman, in particular. Fr. Gallagher cited the hard work and inspirational leadership which these two men gave to the campaign. He also praised John Correia De Mello, business chairman, and Mitchell S.

BY DANIEL A. BALDWIN ON THE VOYAGE FROM JUNE 28, 1844 to MARCH 9, 1847.

June 8th. Monday begins with the wind strong from W by N which continues through the day. The weather is cold as winter. We stow down 100 bbls. of oil in the fore hatch in the afternoon. There is plenty of Sulphurbottoms about today. At 4 P.M. we saw a rt. whale and lowered for him.

The boats went into him several times but could not get hold. He would dodge the boats but would not go off.

GUILD HAS SUCCESSFUL FAIR

The vestry of the Mattapoissett Congregational Church was gay with decorations for the very successful annual Christmas Fair held last Tuesday, sponsored by the Women's Community Guild. A large crowd from Mattapoissett and nearby towns attended to Christmas shop and enjoy a coffee hour or luncheon.

Bells were the theme this year of the fair and were carried out in the decoration of the vestry. Bells, Christmas greens, pine cones and birds adorned the vestry. White window boxes with poinsettias in them were placed in each window. On the stage a most delightful scene was arranged by C. Ross Humphrey of the Men's Club. Two white deer on a blanket of snow peered through snow covered pine trees. Red candles and greens were the centerpieces at the tables at which coffee and donuts were served from 10:30 to 11:30 and a luncheon from 11:30 to 1.

The different booth tables were attractively decorated for their own settings. Bell pins of red and green felt were worn by the workers, and white ones were sold at the door by Mrs. Charles MacLauchlin. The pins were made by Mrs. Nelson Parsons and her committee.

Mrs. Frederic E. Reynard showed cartoon movies for the children at intervals throughout the day, giving the mothers ample time to do their shopping.

Mrs. Clifton Hatton, chairman of the coffee wants 22 barrels to chock it. We make no sail today. No Obs'n.

June 11 th. Thursday begins with the wind moderate from the S, the latter part the wind is strong from S.E. with rain and fog. We steer N. We set up pipe shocks today. No whale in sight.

June 12 th. Friday. This day the wind is moderate from S.S.W with thick fog. We saw a ship with no sail on. The Cooper is at work on the pipe shocks today.

June 13th. Saturday begins with the wind light from S., rainy and foggy. At 8 A.M. the fog clears up a little and the wind is light from NW. We saw three rt. whales to windward. At noon three boats lowered and pulled 1½ miles to windward. The larboard boat struck him. He acted as if he had been to a dancing school. He got the Larboard boat on his flukes and stove her. A part of the crew fell out. He stove the boat and hit one man on his legs. The fog came in thick. Capt. Chester got out our old rusty cannon and fired it. We found the ship at 4 P.M. We saw a sail this morning.

June 14th. Sunday the wind is moderate from WNW and atmosphere clear till 3 P.M., then thick fog. We saw today 4 sail and numbers of finbacks. We saw one rt. whale and lowered for him twice. The S. quarter boat struck him. We killed him and he sank. He was an ugly bull.

June 15th. Monday is calm. Sometimes we have light airs from the westward with thick fog all day. The sky is clear overhead and the rays of the sun is warm. It is the pleasantest day I have seen of this coast.

We break out water from the mizzen hatch and start it into pipes. Two rt. whales came past us out of the fog going verry fast. We lowered and chased them but could not get nigh them.

June 16th, Tuesday. This day is clear and the sun shines warm with calm and light airs from the westward till 4 P.M., then thick fog with light airs from the Eastward. At 6 A.M. we saw a rt. whale 4 miles from the ship. Three boats lowered, two got fast and loose again in 5 minutes. We chased him but in vain. At 2 P.M. there was several whale in sight of different kinds. The larboard boat struck one. He soon died and sank. We spoke the ship ENTERPRISE on here the second season, 800 bbls. the whole, one whale this season.

June 17th, Wednesday the fog is thick with calms and light airs from the southward.

June 18th. Thursday the wind is moderate from SW with thick fog till 7 P.M. then light airs from NE all night and weather beautiful. At half past five P.M. 2 rt. whales came up verry near the ship. The two quarter boats lowered. They both went on to the whale and did not fasten. Soon after they both struck one whale.
